

CONCERTS @ ST. JOHN'S

FALL 2016 SERIES

Sundays at 4 p.m.

October 9

Johan Botes, piano

Marshall University faculty artist, prize winner from South Africa and London, opens the series with a full recital on the Luzader Baldwin piano.

October 23

The Kent Camerata

International touring vocal and instrumental ensemble including St. John's performers Amanda-Joyce Abbott, soprano, and David DeBolt, bassoon, presents a program from their September 2016 French tour.

November 20

FA2 + 1

West Virginia Symphony assistant concertmaster Cristian Fatu, violin, and West Virginia State University faculty artist Victoria Fatu, piano, are joined by Margie Cooper, violin.

Admission free/donations

Meet the performers and learn more about their music at a reception following each performance.

CONCERTS @ ST. JOHN'S

COMING IN WINTER/SPRING 2017

February 26

Mardi Gras with the Lufu Saxophone Quartet

Faculty saxophonists from area college music schools play both classical repertoire and New Orleans jazz.

April 2

Stars of Tomorrow

Prodigies and prizewinners in concert.

May 14

Scott Hayes, organ

Charleston native and noted soloist returns for a Mothers' Day Serenade on St. John's E.M. Skinner organ.

Concerts @ St. John's is an outreach service to the Greater Charleston community presented by St. John's Episcopal Church. Purposes of the series include presenting concerts of high artistic quality and providing a creative outlet for musicians from the region and the church, including outstanding young talent.

1105 Quarrier St., Charleston, W.Va.